

Madre María Teresa Guevara Library

U.S. Constitution Week Report

- Prepared by:
Alejandro Escobar Nieves, Library Director
- Date: September 30, 2025

Context

Sacred Heart University has commemorated U.S. Constitution Week with a variety of educational and civic engagement activities. These initiatives have included lectures, exhibitions, and conferences designed to foster awareness of constitutional principles and their relevance in contemporary society. The library has collaborated to highlight primary sources and promote interdisciplinary perspectives on democracy, rights, and civic responsibility. Between 2021 and 2025, these activities have strengthened the university's mission, providing students and the academic community with opportunities to reflect on the importance of the Constitution in both Puerto Rican and U.S. contexts. The following section provides the details of each activity held during the period mentioned above.

- September 17, 2025
 - Conference: Constitución de Estados Unidos: Orígenes revolucionarios, contenido y actualidad
 - Speaker: Lic. Ramón Luis Nieves, Former Senator of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico
 - Event description: This conference examines the revolutionary origins that led to the framing of the Constitution, provides an overview of its content and structure, and concludes with reflections on contemporary constitutional debates
 - Attendance: 61 students

CONMEMORACIÓN DE LA CONSTITUCIÓN DE LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS DE NORTEAMÉRICA

Conferencia

Constitución de Estados Unidos:
Orígenes revolucionarios,
contenido y actualidad

Lic. Ramón Luis Nieves

miércoles, 17 de septiembre de 2025

9:30 a. m. - 11:00 a. m.

Sala de Conferencias

145 AÑOS
SAGRADO
Universidad del Sagrado Corazón

